Trumbull Co. GOP Breakfast

UPDATE

The February breakfast scheduled to take place at Panara Bread on Saturday, February 11 has been moved to the Mocha House. In order to accomodate our GROWING attendance at our monthly breakfasts, the Mocha House better suits our needs.

February's speaker will be former State Senator Chip Henry. Mr. Henry is currently the Judge at the Geauga County Probate/Juvenile Court in Chardon.

As always, the breakfast is open to the public, and all friends of the Trumbull County Republican Party are welcomed to attend. The party has seen great attendance at recent breakfasts, LET'S KEEP IT UP!

The breakfast will be buffet style and begin at 9:00am.

House elects Ohio Rep. as Majority Leader

The State of Ohio had a great victory last week when John Boehner was voted in by Republican members of congress as the Majority Leader of the House of Representatives. Boehner has served the 8th house district of Ohio (southwest) since 1991.

As Ohio GOP chairman Bob Bennett said "This is great news for Ohio, but even better for the nation. John Boehner is a proven leader. He is decisive in his decision-making. And he has a forward-thinking plan of reform for improving accountability and restoring the integrity of Congress."

Yet, there is a difference between responsible criticism that aims for success, and defeatism that refuses to acknowledge anything but failure. Hindsight alone is not wisdom, and second-guessing is not a strategy.
